The Potential Of The New Round Of Tax Laws And Their Impact On Commercial Real Estate

The TAX rule book may be changing soon with the current administration. Potential changes on 1031 Tax Deferred Exchanges, Capital Gains Rules, and other changes will impact on how investors and owners of commercial real estate will work in this arena. Will Sellers stop selling? Will buyers stop buying? What about tenants and how they are handled? The landscape for this marketplace and for the brokerage industry may be in for a very rough ride.
