A Whole New Ballgame!

Managing property in Los Angeles is more complicated than ever. Whether it is residential or commercial, all of the rules have changed. Rent collections, rent control, security deposits, over due rents, evictions and more. What you used to be able to do 3 years ago is totally different. Get an update on the current practices of how to treat tenants vs landlords in the current environment. This type of business is not for the weak of heart.

Don't miss this important meeting!
