Writing the Commercial Purchase or Lease Contract-Be Careful!!!

We all have the forms to use, but is all we need to do is fill in the blanks? Does the contract reflect the wishes of the client? Who does the contract favor? Can you change the language in the contract? When do you cross the line to practicing law? What does the contract really say and mean? Can you explain the contract to the client? Major transactions require proper representation. What should we as agents and brokers be doing.

Don't miss this very important session!
