A Real Solution to the Homeless Situation in Los Angeles?

- Public or private? Which works better to solve the problem, or it is a joint venture?
- Is it just housing or are there other pieces to it.
- What has worked recently and can it be duplicated?
- What is the cost and how effective are the solutions.
- Come listen to Bill Taormina who represents the Life Rebuilding Center organization near downtown LA and see what they want to accomplish for thousands of people with making those public dollars go 30% further.
- Don't be part of the problem. Participate in the solution.
- This is one you do not want to miss.
